MRS. LYON'S ACHES AND PAINS

Have All Gone Since Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Terre Hill, Pa.—"Kindly permit me to give you my testimonial in favor of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. When I first began taking it I was suffering from female troubles for some time and had almost all kinds of aches—pains in lower part of back and in sides, and pressing down pains. I could not sleep and had no appetite. Since I have taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound the aches and pains are all gone and I feel like a new woman. I cannot praise your medicine too highly."—Mrs.
AUGUSTUS LYON, Terre Hill, Pa.

It is true that nature and a woman's work has produced the grandest remedy for woman's ills that the world has ever known. From the roots and herbs of the field, Lydia E. Pinkham, forty years ago, gave to womankind a remedy for their peculiar ills which has proved more efficacious than any other combination of drugs ever compounded, and today Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is recognized from coast to coast as the standard remedy for woman's ills.

In the Pinkham Laboratory at Lynn, Mass., are files containing hundreds of thousands of letters from women seeking health—many of them openly state over their own signatures that they have regained their health by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound; and in some cases that it has saved them from surgical operations.

Important Happenings and Local Notes from the County Seat.

MEMORIAL DAY.

The G. A. R., W. R. C. and Odd Fellows attended services at the Baptist church Sunday and listened to an able sermon by Rev. Rankin, pastor. Monday was one of the most beautiful days we remember for Memorial day exercises and everyone seemed to enter into the spirit of the occasion and lend a helping hand to the old veterans. At 10 a. m., a line for parade was formed by H. F. Hamilton as marshal, Co. L. National Guards, leading the line, followed by Newport Cornet band, the Boy Scouts, Evening Star Lodge of I. O. O. F., a boys' bicycle brigade and about 25 autos with the G. A. R. veterans and associates and W. R. C.
The course of the parade was Second street, Prospect street to Third street to Main, down Main to West Derby where a hollow square was formed in the cemetery by the G. A. R., W. R. C. and Odd Fellows surrounded by a large crowd of people, the impressive G. A.
R. and I. O. O. F. ceremonies were performed. The West Derby school children sang patriotic selections, after which the various graves were decorated by the Boy Scouts. The company returned to Newport and an excellent dinner was served by the W. R. C. at 2 o'clock a large number of people gathered at Lane's opera hall for the afternoon exercises, which were presided over by Commander J. A. C.
Sleeper. The stage was decorated with flags and bunting in a most attractive manner. Excellent music was furnished by a quartet. Rev.
Kelley invoked divine blessing. Lincoln's address at Gettysburg was delivered in a passing manner by Burton Fountain, after which Hon. E.
C. Blanchard introduced Hon. Porter H. Dale of Island Pond, who delivered the address of the day, which was enjoyed by all present. The writer's attention was arrested for a time at the cemetery by the ranks of the veterans, 18 in number, and again we realize how fast they are being depleted, but alongside this fact was brought to our attention the Boy Scout movement and how they are being taught to assist the veterans and in a measure fill their places and for their services the G. A. R. members are grateful and wish them Godspeed in their good work.

men of that place. All seemed to be thoroughly enjoying themselves and it was a very pretty procession.

W. R. Price. The music was also fine.
Decorative day was observed and all the exercises of the day were participated in by a large crowd. The forenoon service at the cemetery was very impressive. The long procession was led by Sanderson's drum corps. L. R. Wilson kindly conveyed the G. A. R. by team and Chas.
Young was equally kind by conveying to the good dinner and later gathered at the Baptist church. The exercises by the children and young people were the best ever held here and Rev. J. W.

Burgin's address was fine, also the singing.

Henry Deforest Smith was born in St. Albans March 4, 1837. On April 7, 1860, he married Amanda F. Phillips at North Troy, and enlisted a private in Co. C, 10th Vt. regiment and was discharged 1st sergeant. After having lived in Newport Center nearly 40 years, he died on May 2, and was buried May 4. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. J. W. Burgin of West Charleston, assisted by the resident Baptist and Methodist pastors, from the old church where he had so long served, and where he had so long worshipped. The funeral was largely attended by old and respected neighbors who knew him best. For a number of years he served the railroad and was financially remembered by a pension.
He leaves a widow, two sons, Hermon and Herbert L. of Orleans, two daughters, Mrs. A. Harris of Newport and Mrs. George Twombly of Newport Center. In 1905, his daughter, Mrs.
Geo. Page, passed on before. Mr.
Smith was a man of warm sympathies for his children and grandchildren, and reluctantly parted from the wife who had shared the toils, privations and hardships of life, and who did all she could to make the last days of suffering comfortable. He was interested in the welfare of the community, town and nation, to which he had given the service of his young manhood. He was outspoken and true and commanded the respect of those who saw fit to disagree with him. He was an earnest Christian for many years, a deacon of the Free Baptist church for a long time and an efficient Sunday school teacher.
Blessed is the sacred memory of those who, by their evident sincerity and faithfulness have led friends and neighbors to say "he was a good man." They sing Is. 41, 10. Hope and trust stay up the heart of those who mourn, and may the meeting over yonder be without the loss of one.

ONLY A FEW CAN GO.

Those who are so fortunate that expense does not have to be considered are now going to health resorts to get rid of the impurities in the system that cause rheumatism, backache, swollen, aching joints and stiff, painful muscles. If you are one of those who cannot go, yet feel that you need relief from such pain and misery, try Foley Kidney Pills. They restore the kidneys to healthful activity and make you
